Our life skills classes help young moms gain confidence, build independence, and prepare for a healthy, stable future. We are looking for individuals who are willing to share a skill, teach a class, or lead a workshop that will encourage and equip the young women we serve.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE A PROFESSIONAL TEACHER

If you have a skill, a passion, or life experience that could benefit a young mom, we'd love to hear from you. Sometimes the most impactful teachers are simply people who care and are willing to share what they know.

Equip. Encourage. Empower.
